

Elder Abuse: A Coordinated Community Response

One Victim's Experience

Candace J. Heisler, JD and Bonnie Brandl, MSW

July 15, 2009
8:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Anaheim Family Justice Center
150 West Vermont
Anaheim, CA 92805

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Law enforcement	Prosecutors	Court personnel
Adult Protective Services	Aging network staff	Health care providers
Community-based advocates (Sexual Assault & Domestic Violence)	System-based advocates	Allied Professionals

PURPOSE

- This training was created for the Enhanced Training and Services to End Violence and Abuse of Women Later in Life Program, Office on Violence against Women, US Department of Justice.
- Participants will learn to build a coordinated community response that enhances victim safety and is victim center.

TRAINING GOALS

- Recognize what individuals and organizations can and should do to intervene in elder abuse cases
- Promote understanding of agency roles and authority in responding to elder abuse matters
- Identify barriers within and between systems that impair/impede effective collaboration in elder abuse cases
- Identify and encourage practices and procedures that enhance communication, coordination, and collaboration between and among systems in order to enhance victim safety and promote offender accountability in elder abuse cases

FOR MORE INFORMATION OR TO REGISTER, CONTACT:

Marissa Walker, Human Options, Inc, (714) 435-9992 ext 102, mwalker@humanoptions.org