

Dissolving Gender Stereotypes: Everyone is unique and special in their own way. Don't let gender stereotypes stop you from being your bestself!

Students to write down gender stereotypes and dissolve them in water.

Materials:

- Small pieces of paper
- Markers (not sharpies)
- 1 large pool of water.

For an example of this activity, click here.

Invite a Community Educator to table at your school: Human Options is here as a resource for you and your community!

During lunch or a tutorial period, we can host a tabling event to showcase our resources and provide informational activities to engage your classmates.

For more information, please e-mail rfuntanilla@humanoptions.org or contact 949-737-5242, ext. 321.